WOULD ALFONSO
HAVE PARDONED
DOCTOR FERRER?PARIS DISPATCH WOULD LEAD TO
THIS CONCLUSIONHE SCOLDED PREMIER MAURAFor Not Having Given Him the Opportunity of Doing So.—Workmen
Hold Violent Meetings

Paris, Oct. 15.—In a Madrid dispatch this afternoon it is announced that King Alfonso has had a very violent quarrel with Premier Maura over the Ferrer incident. In fact it is reported that the quarrel was more than heated.

The King asserted that Maura had not given him as King, the opportunity of exercising the Royal prerogative of issuing a pardon to the condemned man and intimated that very bad judgment had been used in shooting him.

The repetition of this story throughout the city has caused a change in sentiment which has been rising against the King owing to the troubles at Barcelona which led up to the trial, conviction and shooting of Ferrer one of the leaders.

Other dispatches today from Madrid also report large meetings of workmen were held yesterday at which violent speeches were made by the leaders. The gatherings were held at Bilbao and Cornu.

Troops are being held in readiness to check any possible disorders and the Imperial announces that the government will concentrate more soldiers in Madrid at once to take the place of those sent to Morocco.

FACULTY TO TAKE ACTION AT ONCEPresident Van Hise Declines to Call
Special Meeting to Consider Moll's Case.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—Students and alumni of the University of Wisconsin, protesting against the alleged injustice done to John Edward Moll and the faculty in the suspension of that student by the faculty discipline committee, have won the first skirmish in their struggle for redress of the quarrel with the faculty.

President Van Hise arrived home Saturday, heard the representations of the student committee and granted the plea for a special immediate meeting of the faculty to consider the Moll case. He named the date for the special meeting of the general faculty to be held on Monday at 4 o'clock.

The calling of the special meeting of the faculty is a victory over the discipline committee, for Chairman Hubbard of that committee declared that there was no chance of getting the faculty to hear an appeal before the regular meeting on November 1. Ordinarily he would be safe in making such a declaration for special meetings of the faculty are almost unheard of, and never has a special meeting been called to consider the reinstatement of a student suspended by the discipline committee.

Careful preparations have been made by the pro-Moll students and alumni to see to it that the faculty hearing is no perfunctory affair. Representatives of the state administration and alumni members of the legislature are to be given an opportunity, if possible to at least hear the proceedings. It is said that Secretary of State Fair has declared his willingness to appear before the faculty and demand that Moll be given a fair trial, that he be confined with some special charge, and that the suspension of Moll be not made permanent unless reasonably conclusive evidence of wrongdoing is presented against him. The student committee waited upon Professor Hubbard and asked what charge against Moll, to which he replied that there was no charge. He said that the investigation had satisfied the committee that Moll ought to be suspended for participation in the hanging incident in which Moll was charged, defended himself and broke some teeth of Glenn Turner of Milwaukee. Professor Hubbard's statement was being taken down in shorthand, when he discovered the stenographer taking notes and forthwith ordered the student committee out of his office. He said that some members of the faculty have agreed that they will insist in the faculty meeting to demand that the committee make a full presentation of the facts or information upon which the suspension was based. It was also planned to get two alumni members of the legislature, men of great influence on account of the necessity of the university going to them for appropriations, to appear and ask to be allowed to attend the faculty meeting. While it is unusual for nonfaculty members to attend proceedings, it is not without precedent, and it is said to be certain that admission will not be denied to members of the legislature and representatives of the state administration. The backs of the plea for Moll's reinstatement is being kept free as possible from considerations of football, but the plea is based purely upon the claim that Moll, in interfering with the rough handling of a freshman friend, George Horschman by name, was acting directly in line with a university tradition, publicly approved by President Van Hise, according to which any university member or nonmember is supposed to be in duty bound to interfere to prevent unnecessary roughness. It is also claimed that Moll acted naturally and with ample justification in striking out determinedly when he had been dealt a terrible kick and show of further violence was being offered. It is acknowledged that it was unfortunate that Glenn Turner had two front teeth broken, but it is insisted that linking the incident step by step there can be found no just grounds for throwing Moll out of the university. While there is much violent discussion of this affair, even embracing a charge that members of the faculty committee acted to carry favor with the hope of getting jobs on the University of Chicago pay roll, the serious movement in favor of Moll's reinstatement is based solely upon the argument that the popular opinion is in their favor.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

James Buchanan's valuable Pomeranian dog, "Pete," was poisoned by strychnine, thrown into his front yard yesterday and died in great agony during the afternoon, all efforts by Dr. Clark to save the little pet proving unavailing. Canine belonging to Engineer John Cuen and a driver for the Glueh Brewing Co., who live in the same neighborhood, have also been sent to the happy hunting ground in the same fashion during the past few days and the Fourth ward residents who own pet stock are up in arms. In some quarters it is believed that a woman is responsible for the cruel war of extermination that is being waged against the harmless dumb creatures.

By unanimous agreement of the Liquor Dealers' association the time-honored free lunch was abolished today from all of the saloons in Washington. On complaint of the licensed restaurants the Excise Board limited to the saloons that it would be well for them to curb their generosity in providing free lunch. The saloons were perfectly willing to comply with the request, especially since the free lunch counter has been a source of ever increasing expense. Now the individual who goes into a saloon to quench his thirst will have only a pretzel or two to satisfy his hunger.

LAND AND WATER PAGEANTS

Glorious In Their Splendor, Will Be

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 15.—San Francisco and her neighbors are to make merry this week in celebration of the 140th anniversary of the discovery of San Francisco Bay and the site of the present city by Gaspar de Por-tola in 1769. The carnival will last three days and will be the greatest affair of the kind ever attempted here.

The celebration will be typical in every respect of the progress and development, of the growth in population and business, of goals reached and ambitions realized, of the hundred and forty years that have elapsed

since the hardy Spanish commander and his little party stood upon the mountains and gazed with admiration upon the site of the present

Pacific coast metropolis. The carnival, coming as it does at a time when

San Francisco has been a completely rebuilt city, is intended to draw the world's attention to this fact more directly and with greater force than has yet been done despite the fact that columns

have been given to the subject in thousands of publications.

San Francisco flourished from the very beginning, but not until the turn of gold seekers sixty years ago did

she begin to assume those qualities

of hustle and bustle which have characterized her ever since. The complete recovery from the appalling disaster of 1906, when the greater part of the city was destroyed by fire is regarded as one of the marvels of the century. The San Francisco of today

POWER OF MONEY IN DOING GOOD

REV. WILLIAMS-SPOKE-ON SUB-JECT LAST EVENING.

SOCIETY FADS ASSAILED

And Fashionables Bitterly Censured
for Spending Money That Might Be Used for Better Purposes.

"Money and how to use it" was the subject of the Sunday evening discourse by Rev. T. D. Williams at the Methodist church. He told of the large amount of Christian work that could be accomplished by a small gift to the cause and how the amount of good done was increased by a larger sum.

The text was taken from the tenth verse of the third chapter of Malachi, which reads: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse."

"One of the hopeful signs of the Christian church of today," said Rev. Williams, "is the teaching of a systematic manner of giving. When God built the world, he built it on a system. The builders and framers of government built up the foundation of a system. Christ was his devotion to money. He was not systematic in all his work and plans, but the name 'methodist' was bestowed on him in derision."

"The same spirit should prevail in making gifts. The ladies of the Foreign Mission society go about it systematically and what is the result? Two-thirds of a million dollars, for the cause given annually, from the small amount each is asked to give."

"A man's life does not consist of the things he owns. It is not the worldly possessions he has that count, but rather that which he has stored up for himself in heaven. The greatest of all treasures is when a man goes out into the eternity a spiritual pauper."

"The leaders of the church have given out a proclamation of the whole truth of the vital relations between Godliness and money. To him that gives offerings, the Lord will give his business much greater than the gift."

"When the Jews gave tithes, prosperity and happiness dwelt with them, but when they did not give offerings to the Lord they were taken into captivity and calamity befell them, but when they did not make to us. The success of any enterprise depends upon the amount of money invested, and it is so with Christian work. Not that God wants to sell converts at so much per head, but money is needed for good work and we should give it freely and willingly."

"God is preparing for the most generous offering in the history of the Christian church and there is no reason why we may not go on equipping the churches and colleges with the best that money can furnish."

"How should we go about it? The best is prayer. Let us pray for it. Let us cut off our extravagances."

"Forty million dollars was spent last year for arms, and I suppose a proportionate amount was expended for docks. One of the latest fads of the society is a dog banquet, at which the animals are entertained lavishly and served all the delicacies of the season. Fifteen million dollars was spent for guns. 'Dime fashion' also imposes her tax on the people. The money spent for jewelry is ten times as much as what is put into missions."

"A man in 'New York' put half a million dollars into a tomb for himself and his wife. It may be all right to put up tombs for the dead, but it is far better to use the money in teaching men how to live and die."

"Let us cut off our extravagances. Let us divide our profits with God. We have been doing business in the church on a per capita basis, but it is time to do it on a pro rata basis. I pray that there may come to us a baptism of generosity and an ex-emption of vision. There is a good deal of a lack of generosity in the church. Just a little tendency to hold tight to our pocketbooks."

"A heavenly investment is the best paying proposition in the world. The returns from a few dollars given for Christ's work cannot be estimated. We are entertaining tonight in this country one of the most distinguished guests that has ever come across the water. Gypsy Smith found peace in God in a little meeting held in England. Thousands have found peace in Jesus Christ through his teachings. Can you estimate the returns and dividends for the expenditure of the few hundred dollars for that church?"

"To capture, try, convict and educate a New York criminal, recently, cost the state approximately $100,000."

"Some time ago a young woman died on the Pacific coast. Just before she breathed her last she called her brother to her side and told him that a man had wronged her and that she wanted her brother to take a revolver and travel across the country to kill this man. The brother promised her that he would and went to New York City to hunt the man down and slay him. One day while standing on a corner in the metropolis, he heard a man addressing a crowd in the street. He became interested in what the evangelist said, threw away the revolver, and later became converted. That conversion probably saved the state of New York the cost of a trial, possibly another hundred thousand dollars. And what did it cost to convert this man? Five dollars was the cost, keep that evangelist preaching that day. Oh! the power of that five dollars."

"The same spirit should prevail in making gifts. The ladies of the Foreign Mission society go about it systematically and what is the result? Two-thirds of a million dollars, for the cause given annually, from the small amount each is asked to give."

One day while standing on a corner in the metropolis, he heard a man addressing a crowd in the street. He became interested in what the evangelist said, threw away the revolver, and later became converted. 'Dime fashion' also imposes her tax on the people. The money spent for jewelry is ten times as much as what is put into missions."

"A man in 'New York' put half a million dollars into a tomb for himself and his wife. It may be all right to put up tombs for the dead, but it is far better to use the money in teaching men how to live and die."

"Let us cut off our extravagances. Let us divide our profits with God. We have been doing business in the church on a per capita basis, but it is time to do it on a pro rata basis. I pray that there may come to us a baptism of generosity and an ex-emption of vision. There is a good deal of a lack of generosity in the church. THEATRE

"The Golden Girl," fresh from a sensation in Chicago, where it has crowded two theatres for nearly a year, comes to Myers theatre on Tuesday, Oct. 19.

The wonderful stage effects, brilliant electrical display and gorgeous costumes make of "The Golden Girl" what might almost be called a spectacular extravaganza, were it not for the well defined plot and strong dramatic situations that are never lost sight of throughout the performance. Perhaps no one realizes more than Mr. Slinger, that the day has arrived when it is necessary to give the one-night wonder in the smallest of the one-night stands, the same complete, high-class production as that offered in New York or Chicago. He has always believed in this theory, which is substantiated by the road companies that have visited this city under his management.

In "The Golden Girl" Mr. Slinger has made the most elaborate production and offers the best musical comedy of any yet sent out from his Chicago theatres. The company includes Jimmy Lucas, Marie Flynn, Franklin Farrum, Miss Davis, Charles Horn, Peter Raymond, Lew Fuller and a score of others supported by the best singing chorus ever graduated from the famous La Salle school.

Features of the production are "The Golden Shower," where a veritable shower of gold descends on a golden continued ballet, fairly dazzling the eye with its kaleidoscopic effects; and the beautiful "Indian Love Song," illustrated by elaborately costumed chorus figures and novel stage settings. The principal song list are: "I Think I Hear a Woodpecker Knocking on My Family Tree," "I Can't Love Everybody," "I'd Rather Fight Like Me," "My Ship, My Dream," "White Women and Song," and "The Land of Us-to-Be."

In discussing the different dialects of the southern negro, Jimmy Lucas, principal comedian with "The Golden Girl" company, related the following conversation between a couple of Memphis darlings that took place on the street one morning:

"Good mornin', Miss Snowball, whar' you all gwine dis mornin'?"

"I ain't gwine no whar dis mornin', I've done been whar 'ee gwine."

"Little Johnny Jones"

Geo. M. Cohan's phenomenal musical comedy success, "Little Johnny Jones," will come to Myers theatre Thursday, Oct. 21.

Probably no play with musical environment has been vouchsafed the audience that has been showered upon this, perhaps the best place of musical comedy writing that has yet emanated from the pen of this prolific young author-composer-playwright, who at the age of twenty-eight, has six musical comedy hits to his credit.

"Little Johnny Jones" is a combination of farce, comic opera, melodrama and straight comedy. Several dramatic reviewers have likened it to a comedy are of that whistle-bell kind, aptly described by one reviewer as Cohanesque.

Nearly one hundred singing and dancing comedians and comedienne are enlisted in the presentation of "Little Johnny Jones." They include many of the players who have so materially assisted in the continued success of this famous Cohan comedy since it was first produced. Then there is the chorus, a regular Cohan chorus, that is full of snap and "glitter," and who are not only good to look upon but who can really sing. Add to this a scenic, electrical and costume investiture that is elaborate to a degree and it is little wonder that "Little Johnny Jones" is still as potent a box office winner as it was in the first weeks of its performance.

Jefferson De Angella, who appears here this evening in his production of "The Beauty Spot," is one of the best known comedians in the musical comedy world. The company has just closed a most successful week in Milwaukee and the papers of that city speak most highly of the performance.

excellent taste. His scenery is magnificent, two enormous reaching towers, the morning at 8:30, while the company arrived at noon. This is De Angella's first visit to Janesville and he should be given a large house. The musical melodrama, but no matter in what class you place it, the fact remains that for the past two seasons it has proven one of the best paying investments that has been placed in the dramatic field for a decade. And this is as it should be, for of a surety no funnier lines, more fascinating music, more interesting love story, or more laughable situations could be written, composed or devised than are to be found in "Little Johnny Jones."

Not only are the comedies and musical numbers tuneful, but the twenty odd songs with which Mr. Cohan has punctuated the acts of the

KNOCK-OUT IN THE TWELFTH ROUND

JACK JOHNSON WHIPS STANLEY KETCHEL IN A FURIOUS BATTLE.

FIGHT LASTS 12 ROUNDS

Colored Champion Outweighs Opponent by Twenty Pounds But Later Put Up Game Argument—Is Carried from Ring Unconscious.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—Stanley Ketchel, the holder of the middleweight title, was knocked out in the twelfth round of a furious fight in the Colma arena by Jack Johnson, the colored champion of the world, the title to which he can still lay claim. The end came just when it seemed as if the white man was drawing up on his heavier foe.

Hitting suddenly from the floor where Ketchel had sent him with a punch behind the ear, Johnson flew at the white man so savagely and unexpectedly that Ketchel, who was stepping back toward the ropes was taken unaware. Before he could put up his guard Johnson's right fist, driven with all the force of his muscular black body, landed with a thud on the jaw, and like a flash the colored man's left dashed into Ketchel's stomach. As Stanley bent forward from the force of the blow Johnson swung his right once more and landed fairly on Ketchel's jaw.

Stanley was knocked to the floor as it were down by some irresistible weight and lay there a quivering mass of unconscious humanity. No more had been Johnson's rush and so rapidly had the blows been delivered that the big black fairly hurtled over the body of his prostrate opponent, stumbling to the other side of the ring and falling heavily. He arose, evidently in distress from his own fall and the blow Ketchel had landed previously, and stood, breathing in gasps and holding to the ropes.

Ketchel Tried to Arise.

Even as he arose before Welsh had commenced to toll off the seconds over the prostrate Ketchel, and Willis Britt, the boxer's manager, shouted frantically from the corner for his man to get up. But Ketchel was beyond hearing. As the referee drew near the count of ten some instinct made Ketchel struggle feebly and try to rise. But his head wobbled back helplessly, and a moment later his seconds were carrying him bleeding and unconscious body to his corner.

So quickly had the whole thing happened that the spectators were taken by surprise. There was dead silence for a moment among the 10,000 spectators. Then when Welsh walked over to the still dazed Johnson and held his hand aloft signifying victory, a burst of cheering arose from Johnson's supporters.

If Ketchel was beaten he was not disgraced. Outweighed by 20 pounds, and although the ease looked hopeless for him by the third round, the Michigan boxer never faltered or flinched. He rushed in time and again and when he found that his science was not equal to that of Johnson's, he dropped his attempts at being clever and went in to swap blows. On at least three occasions he had Johnson in danger.

Weight Is What Told.

It was weight that really told the tale—weight and superior strength. From the first clutch it was evident that Ketchel was in danger of being crushed like a butterfly at close quarters. Johnson's embrown would bend him slowly backward, and the larger man forced him to whatever part of the ring he desired.

It was a case of the straight left jab and waiting tactics against a man who had to depend on body blows against a man who could smother them and who was able to prop him off with the left. All through the bout Johnson's left kept shooting out. Its snaky length jolting into Ketchel's face with thud after thud that could be heard all about the ring. Long before the third round was half over Stanley's face was bruised and swollen and his nose was bleeding fast. Yet he skipped to his corner in blithe some fashion and came back to his work with a smile on his bloody lips.

Johnson landed again and again with that snaky left—but he could not make Ketchel stop. The Michigan man abandoned his attempted scientific work and was trying hard with swings for the body and close-range blows to the jaw. But there was distress in his breathing, and when he leaned his head on Johnson's shoulder in the clinch a stream of crimson flowed down the black man's back.

The men will profit largely by the fight, as Promoter Coffroth estimates the receipts at $10,000.

Iowa Apple Crop Is Ruined.

Burlington, Ia., Oct. 18.—Frost has ruined the apple crop in southeastern Iowa. Thousands of bushels of the fruit still on the trees have been blighted, many owners losing from two to three thousand bushels each. The total loss in southeastern Iowa will reach 75,000 bushels.

YORKTOWN FETE: AN HISTORIC EVENT

CELEBRATES 128TH ANNIVERSARY OF SURRENDER OF CORNWALLIS.

GREAT RALLY OF PATRIOTS

Make Occasion Worthy of Victory for American Arms—Thousands View Scenes of Historical Interest—Great Naval and Military Parade.

Yorktown, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Yorktown is today in gala attire and the people prepared for an enthusiastic and patriotic celebration of the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the surrender of the British forces under command of Lord Cornwallis to Gen. George Washington October 19, 1781. Overhanging throngs are kept busy viewing the places of interest and scenes in connection with this historic and dramatic event which took place here during that remarkable period.

Many patriotic societies, prominent among which are the Yorktown Historical society of the United States and the Society of the Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, have joined forces to make this patriotic rally worthy of the victory for the American arms. A strong sentiment has been developed among members of patriotic societies in favor of setting apart these historic places forever as one of the nation's sacred resorts, as has been done with Yorktown and other localities associated with American Independence.

Town Is Little Changed.

This little town of 200 people has suffered such slight change after this lapse of time that it is possible to see the field over which the British troops marched to stack their arms and to surrender. The British intrenchments are here, and Lafayette's march, with his light infantry to storm the works of the enemy can be traced in detail as can the course traversed by Alexander Hamilton in making his famous bayonet attack. The house in which the terms of capitulation were signed is also here with no important change, and is the center of attraction on the part of the pilgrims.

Historic Spots Viewed.

In front of the famous home of Thomas Nelson, Jr., a signer of the Declaration of Independence and the revolutionary period, a stage has been erected from which many of the famous historic spots can be seen. It is here that the extensive program for the celebration of these events will be carried out tomorrow. Henry Norris, president of the Descendants of the Signers will call the assembly to order and will deliver an address. Col. Oswald Tighman of Maryland, first vice-president of the Yorktown Historical society and president of the American Society of the Cincinnati will read the correspondence between Lord Cornwallis and Gen. Washington relating to the capitulation of Yorktown and the surrender of the British forces. Representative J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, president of the Atlantic Seaper Waterways association, will deliver an oration.

Among the picturesque features of the occasion will be the singing of "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," by the school children of York county.

In the great parade which has been planned there will be soldiers and sailors of the United States, members of the naval reserve of Maryland, mounted citizens of York and adjoining counties to the number of 500.

25,000 ATTEND LORD'S SUPPER.

Great Outpouring of People at Convention of Disciples of Christ.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—The greatest religious gathering ever held in this city, and perhaps in the country, occurred at Forbes field here, when about 25,000 persons assembled at the ceremony of the Lord's supper, the event being the principal feature of the day's session of the convention of the Disciples of Christ (Christian church).

About 100 elders and 1,000 deacons of the church officiated during the ceremony in passing bread and wine to the great gathering, while a choir of 500 voices led the music. Ideal weather added greatly to the comfort of those present.

GOV. MAGOON REACHES CAPITAL

Arrival Gives Rise to Rumor He May Succeed Crane.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The arrival here of Charles E. Magoon, former provisional governor of Cuba, and at that time President Taft's first lieutenant in the islands, promptly gave rise to the rumor that he had been summoned in connection with the new vacancy in the diplomatic post in Peking, from which Charles H. Crane was virtually removed before he had time to proceed to the Chinese capital. Mr. Magoon insisted that he had not been summoned by the state department to report here, but he would not discuss the matter further.

The fact that Mr. Magoon cut his vacation in half and returned unexpectedly from Europe lent color to the report.

Young Wife Commits Suicide.

Centerville, Ill., Oct. 18.—Mrs. Charles Hensley, a bride of a year, committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. Domestic trouble is given as the cause for the deed.

SO AS TO SAVE TIME.
Restaurant Keeper—What you can't pay your bill? Out you go then. Guest at the Next Table—Here, landlord, while you are about it, throw me out, too.

More good comes from hustling than from kicking and you will make more friends while you go about it, too. The best way to hustle is to advertise.

The Majestic Theatre Entirely Remodeled

Every improvement has been added to The Majestic Theatre so as to give the maximum amount of comfort and pleasure to our patrons. The walls and ceiling have been re-decorated, all available floor space is now occupied with reclining-back-seats, the aisles are wide and roomy, two exits in the rear and two in the front, electric fans installed to give good ventilation, furnace heat so as to give an even heat throughout the entire house, and withal every thing has been done to make The Majestic the most comfortable and cozy theatre in Janesville.

OUR SERVICE—We receive the best films we can buy at all times and guarantee that there will be no repeaters (shows you have seen before), as we get brand new films each day, many of which have been shown only once or twice since they were manufactured. By showing new films we are able to produce clearer pictures.

OUR SONGS are all of this season's introduction and are an excellent repertoire of popular, patriotic and sympathetic compositions. Two new songs introduced each week.

We have installed two picture machines so that if one gets out of order we will not disappoint our patrons.

All films used are non-inflammable. The operating room is strictly fire-proof. We invite the public to attend our shows with absolute assurance that there will be nothing objectionable shown at any time.

AND TO THE MOTHERS of children we wish to say that we make it a rule to eliminate all films having a suggestion of crime, and that the children may come to our shows and be benefited greatly. It gives the children a broader view of life—something to think about and educates them concerning the people of other climes, at the same time entertaining them.

The new law regulating the theatres provides that no person shall be allowed to stand in the aisles and we will enforce this law. We have provided seats for all available space and when they are all full, no admissions will be sold—so that you will never have to stand when you come to The Majestic Theatre.

Needless Fear

A lady came into my office in a very nervous and excited condition. I was going to half kill her.

I extracted the offending molar and she says:

"Oh, what a fool I have been. Here I have walked the floor for nearly two weeks in awful pain, and you take out that tooth and never hurt me. I never will do that again if I can find you, Dr. Richards."

I have had many cases like this.

People generally are filled with terror at the thought of a dentist, but if they draw less on imagination and have more faith in my work, dentistry will lose most of its terrors.

SPITE WORK AT CANNING PLANT

OFFICE FIXTURES SMASHED AND PAPERS SCATTERED.

IN DAYTIME YESTERDAY

Two Typewriters And $375 Adding Machine Wrecked With Sledge—Safe Broken And Contents Destroyed.

Wreckage of plate glass partition windows, broken fixtures, and scattered fragments of papers greeted the startled gaze of the watchman at the Peter Hohemadel, Jr., canning factory when he visited the office of that institution last evening. The safe in the main office had been broken open with sledge and the private papers and other contents scattered far and wide. Two $35 typewriters and a $375 adding machine had been demolished. Even an umbrella and the electric light globes had not escaped destruction. In Mr. Hohemadel's private office, adjoining a small room, had been left open and its contents, including a suitcase, books, were also mutilated and things about with a reckless and blind fury which plainly betokened malice as the vandals' sole guiding motive. The whole place looked as if it had been struck by a hurricane.

It had not been necessary to break in the doors. Either they had been left unlocked or the destroyers were provided with keys. When the watchman communicated with the superintendent and the latter learned that no valuables had been taken, he decided to keep the matter quiet until this morning. Upon receiving notification Chief Appleby and Officer Morrisey visited the place about 7 a. m. and made an investigation. They could find no tangible clue to the identity of the marauders and will have nothing definite to work upon until Mr. Hohemadel, who has been in Rochester since Friday, comes back. That the perpetrators of this outrage were former employees who had some real or fancied grievance against the owner seems almost a foregone conclusion.

OVER TWENTY-SIX HOURS AT PIANO

J. M. Waterbury Completed His "Endurance Run" Saturday Night at 10:35.

J. M. Waterbury's "endurance run" on the piano in Frank Kimball's window totaled 26 hours and 35 minutes of continuous performance. He began playing at eight o'clock Friday evening and the music never ceased until 10:35 Saturday night. His best record of 28 hours and 17 minutes was not equaled. The player was not exhausted when the stunt was ended and will need several days to recuperate. Guests on his time were to be examined sometime today.

Winners Named
When the estimates were examined this morning by the judges it was found that all three prize-winners had crossed exactly the correct time—26 hours and 35 minutes. Charles Weaver, 223 West Milwaukee street, whose estimate came in at 9:22 a. m. Saturday, will receive the Hooper Kitchen cabinet. Charles W. Stahl, 452 N. Washington St., who handed in his estimate at 2:40 p. m. Saturday, will receive $25 credit on a piano as second prize and F. M. Morrissey, 208 Jackson St., got $25 credit on a piano with his estimate which was handed in at 7:08 p. m. Saturday.

CHARLES CONRAD TO RESIGN HIS OFFICE

Has Been Oil Inspector Here for Many Years—Successor Not Yet Named.

Charles Conrad, one of the state oil inspectors, has sent in his resignation to State Inspector Tracy and will be relieved from duty on November first. Mr. Conrad's successor will be named after a competitive examination held and it is understood that the handling of the oil inspection law passed by the state legislature last winter is expected to be the deciding factor in the selection. The decision was handed down in the case of the Wadsworth Oil company of Milwaukee against the state and E. M. Tracey, supervisor of oil inspectors.

The company attacked the law in the courts several weeks ago, alleging that it was not legal. The law provided for the inspection of all petroleum products, measuring such products to be up to a certain standard, and assessed 10 cents a barrel for inspection. An injunction, gotten out at the time the litigation was first begun, has prevented the state from collecting inspection tax from the Wadsworth company.

SUBMITS QUESTIONS TO DEBATING LEAGUE

Topics for Debates Between Schools of Interstate League Sent Out by DeWitt College Professor.

Two questions have been submitted to the schools in the Interstate Scholastic Debating league by Chappell Porter, professor of oratory of DeWitt college, for them to select the one for the intercollegiate debate to be held this winter. The topics for selection are: Resolved, That all congresses during the last two years of high school should be elective; and, Resolved, That the federal government should proceed with extensive improvements of the inland waterways.

Eight schools in the states of Wisconsin and Illinois have received these subjects. These eight, including Elgin, Freeport, and Rockford, in Illinois, and La Crosse, Sparta, DeWitt and Janesville, in Wisconsin, form the league which was organized last year by Professor Kennedy of DeWitt, and which is under the patronage of DeWitt college. According to the program followed last year, Janesville debates with DeWitt, and La Crosse with Sparta, the winners debating for the best team in Wisconsin. The Illinois side of the line, and then the Illinois and Wisconsin winners meet to decide the championship of the league. Last year Janesville won the Wisconsin championship, but was defeated by Freeport, representing Illinois. This year they will again strive for the honors.

The feeling of the high school with regard to the subjects submitted is that other questions might prove more profitable.

NO MORE DISTRESS FROM THE STOMACH

Dyspepsia, Gas, Indigestion and Heartburn Vanish and You Will Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diaprepin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diaprepin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diaprepin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at any drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure almost any chronic case of Dyspepsia, indigestion or any other stomach trouble.

It's poor economy to entrust your work to those whose only argument is cheapness of price. Depend on it, the work will be equally cheap.

I would not turn out a single job, big or little, that is not thoroughly dependable. Furnace Repairing, Roofing, Gutter Work, Underfed Furnaces.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

HAVE done as well as so-and-so.

"I have done better than some one-or-other," one hears people say continually.

The little girl is satisfied because she got as good a mark at school as the girl across the street.

The author is delighted because he has written a better story than his pet rival.

The housewife thinks she deserves praise because she has kept her house cleaner than Mrs. Somebody-or-other.

Comparing oneself with other people is weakening. We are continually letting ourselves be satisfied because we have done as well as or better than some one else.

And really, that's not the point at all. The point is simply and solely this: Has each of us done our part as well as it lay in him to do it?

Milton says that truly great men are modest, "because they continually compare themselves not with other men but with that ideal of the perfect which they have ever before their minds."

Isn't that a pretty good quotation to learn and a pretty good kind of modesty to make your ideal?

"And when I realized that I was writing letters to him that were simply histories of all my trouble, I made up my mind that was not a bit the right way," said the little lady who thinks about things.

"Him" was her fiancée. He lived in a distant city. Like all much-love fiancées they bridged the cruel gap by a daily letter and it was of these letters that she was speaking.

"I knew he would always sympathize with me," she said, "and I used to think I had to run to him in my letters with all my troubles."

"And then I realized how much worse they looked on paper and that he probably had troubles of his own and I'm trying to do better."

Neither a good resolution for others besides her, don't you think.

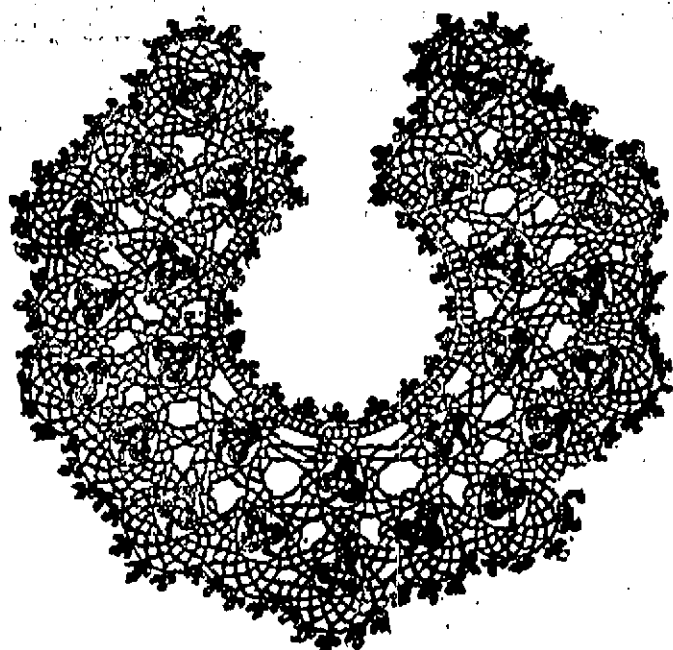

No matter how gladly, how eagerly even, anyone gives it, sympathy is something of a drain.

And it is possible to ask too much of it even from those who love us. Especially in letters.

If you love anyone you want to write him the kind of letters that will make him happy and the best way to do that certainly isn't to tell him all your petty troubles that you will probably have forgotten before you get an answer.

Crochet Collar

This collar is worked with No. 100 linen thread and a very fine hook. Begin with the solid (trot) form. Make 13 ch, turn, catch into 7th ch; 7 ch, 1 d e in 2d st of the ring thus formed; 7 ch, miss 2 ch, 1 d e, 7 ch, miss 2 ch, 1 d e. Now into each of the three spaces work 1 d e, 7 trs, 1 d e, then 1 d e into each of the ch left over; this forms a stem; 7 ch, 1 d e in center of first scallop, 12 ch, 1 d e in center of next scallop, twice, 12 ch, catch into the end of the stem. Into the circle thus formed around the trot work 5 ch, 1 d e into every third st, then 5 ch, 1 d e into center of every 5 ch in previous row; fasten off. Work each succeeding wheel in the same way, catching them together, so as to leave four loops between each at the top, taking care that the stems point downward. When enough wheels are made to fit the size of the neck make some more, fastening each one between the wheels already connected, as shown in the drawing. A third row of wheels is then caught to the top row, and to those on either side, leaving one clear loop between each two loops that are connected with 4 ch, 1 st into the center of each loop along the top, making 7 ch instead of 4, between each wheel. Continue with 5 ch, 1 st in center of each loop, around the sides and lower edge of the collar, making 3 ch only between the wheels. This completed, continue along with * 3 ch, 1 tr in center of next loop, 5 ch, 1 d e into first st of ch, 7 ch, 1 d e, 5 ch, all into same stitch, 3 ch, 1 d e into center of next loop; repeat from * all around the collar. A ribbon run along the top makes a pretty finish and insures a close fit.

Effect of Envy.

If envy, like anger, did not burn itself in its own fire, and consume and destroy those persons it possesses before it destroys those it wishes worst to, it would eat the whole world on fire, and leave the most excellent persons the most miserable.—Lord Clarendon.

He did so and was entirely cured in a short time. Sold by Smith Drug Co., Janesville, Wis. Send for free illustrated booklet.

Hat For Tailored Gowns.

A smart little tailored hat of excellent design is sketched above. This is a pretty compromise between turban and hat, and shows the new lines without exaggeration. The hat was a blocked shape in the very becoming shade of grey called platinum, whose name describes it perfectly. The low aquora crown was encircled by a band of velvet in a darker shade of grey, the ends of which were joined at the left under a flat bow and fancy buckle, which held a tangle of equestrian feathers—the latter of pure white. Very appropriate would this be for wear with a tailored suit.

BANK GUARANTY LAW IS VOID.

Judge Munger Holds Nebraska Statute to Be Unconstitutional.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 18.—In the federal court Judge Munger handed down an opinion on the Nebraska bank guaranty law, passed by the legislature last winter, holding it void and unconstitutional. The court holds that the act of the legislature infringes upon the due process of law clause of the constitution in that it attempts to force solvent banks to pay the losses of insolvent concerns.

The court also finds that another feature of the act permits only corporations to form banking institutions. This exclusion of the individual and the further fact that this was a phase of the question that operated as an inducement of the legislature to pass the law is held to make the law unconstitutional.

Last summer the federal court granted a restraining order preventing the state banking board from putting the law into effect. By the decision of the court this order is made permanent.

FOUR MORE WITNESSES DENY DR. COOK'S CLAIM

All Cast Reflections on Explorer's Mount McKinley Climb—One Stating That Was Impossible.

New York, Oct. 18.—In connection with the investigation of Dr. Frederick A. Cook's expedition to Mount McKinley four more affidavits have been made public. Three of them are by members of the Cook party, all of which say that Hurrill assured them that Dr. Cook's story was false. These men are Fred Printz, a guide; Walter P. Miller, a photographer, and Samuel Beecher. Their evidence relates in detail to movements of the party and explain that Cook and Hurrill were alone during the period in which Cook claims to have reached the summit of Mount McKinley.

The fourth affidavit is that of Dr. John E. Shore, a physician of Leavenworth, Wash., who tells of a conversation with Oscar F. Blankenship, of the United States forestry service, in which Blankenship said that Dr. Cook's claims to having climbed Mount McKinley were false, inasmuch as the feat was impossible in the short time during which Cook and Hurrill were absent. Blankenship was located near Mount McKinley at the time Cook's expedition was there.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18.—Local sentiment may be summed up as adverse to granting the request of the National Geographic society of the United States that the University of Copenhagen waive its claim to the first examination of Dr. Cook's north pole data. Prof. Tort, rector of the University of Copenhagen, personally appears disinclined to the American view.

The university authorities and others here are rather jealous of the attempt to deprive them of the privilege of first receiving Dr. Cook's records. They consider that there are no more competent judges than the professors of the Copenhagen university and members of the Danish Royal Geographical society, and unless Dr. Cook personally requests it they are likely to refuse the request.

PRES. W. C. BROWN IN WRECK.

N. Y. C. Chief with Other Officials Are Shaken from Their Berths.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 18.—A wreck, caused by a broken rail, in which President W. C. Brown of the New York Central railroad, W. H. Newman, former president of the road, and W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., a director, figured, while returning from an inspection of the company's lines, occurred at Rhinecliff, on the Hudson river, about twenty miles north of here. One passenger, a peddler of New York, was killed and ten were injured, none seriously.

Messrs. Brown, Newman and Vanderbilt, who were asleep in the rear car, "Bills House," were almost shaken from their berths, and they hurriedly dressed to learn the extent of the accident. They found that the smoker and one of the day coaches had rolled over on their sides and that James Krakenstein, a peddler, 21 years old, of New York, had been hurled through a window and crushed to death when the car fell on its side. The ten injured were occupants of either the smoker or the day coach, but as their hurts were not serious they continued on to New York in a special train.

Stricken in Church Pulpit.

Bedford, Ind., Oct. 18.—Dr. J. W. Newfield, 83 years old, was stricken with apoplexy while conducting services in the First Christian church in this city. He was known as the father of the Christian church here.

Coffee is a hidden but powerful enemy to one's progress in life. Its subtle, narcotic poison, weakens heart, interferes with digestion and has a definite and destructive effect on the nervous system. People who are content to lead themselves with impatience to progress, who refuse to supply body with food and drink of the kind needed to make up for the daily disintegration of nerve and brain tissue, must stand aside in the race. The ones who are properly fed, will surely win the laurels.

Postum furnishes the gluten and phosphates of grain needed by Nature to nourish brain and nerves with food. When made right, that is, boiled 15 minutes after boiling begins, it has a delicious taste similar to the mild, high-grade Java, but with none of the bad effects of coffee.

There are those who are entirely careless as to what goes into the stomach, but the one who would make all his movements tend towards health and possible greatness can know by a personal test.

LIESE PITCHED
FLAWLESS BALL

CUD RECRUIT PRACTICALLY WING
OWN GAME.

JANESVILLE WAS HELPLESS

Could Not Score on Blonds Twirler
While Sox Pitcher Was Touched
Up for Two Runs.

To a castanet accompaniment from the grandstand and bleachers, where five or six hundred dyed-in-the-wool
fans tried to still their chattering teeth, Deloit, by winning the fifth game from Janesville, showed that for the season of 1903 premier honors on the diamond belong to the Line City.
A shock-headed pitcher, Liese by name, who once before performed against Ward's warriors, was on the mound, and in addition to driving in the first run, outpitched Flene at every stage of the game, practically winning the game by his own efforts,
2 to 0.

From start to finish the game was a hummer, and had it been played in mid-summer when the fans could have dispensed with overcoats and arctic suits have gone down in the history of Rock county as one of the great games. As it was, the boys were too cold to wax enthusiastic over anything except a flash light, although one or two managed to thaw out their pipes enough to let out a few stray type at some of the more sensational plays.

Janesville sent rather a crippled
line-up into the fray, but it is doubtful if they could have done anything
if all the regulars had reported.
Lacked by far from perfect support,
Liese had the Blonds' City aggregation out of his hand, and in only two innings did they even threaten to score. He whiffed fifteen, retired the whole side in the fifth, and by a timely bludge in the fourth, drove in Garner with the first and, as it appeared later, deciding run.

The game, despite the protests of the crowd, was not started until 3:20
on account of the absence of two men and the date being on their memory. When it became evident that darkness would interfere if it were delayed any longer, Manager Ward squeezed his rounded form into a suit
and went into right field, while Hall patrolled center. The combination proved satisfactory, for Ward, in spite of the fact that he was out of practice, got one of Janesville's three hits.
Janesville went to bat first, but in that round, as in the eight following,
they were unable to bunch their hits
at the opportune time. Janesville's only chance to score came in the first and third, but in those seasons Liese cleverly pitched himself out of the hole. In the first, with men on second and third, and two gone, Liese whiffed Briggs. In the third, with Flene perched like a stork on third,
Liese fanned Mee, retiring the side.

Flene's downfall came in the fourth.
Chadwick, of the redoubtable arm of McAuley and Gardner, hit safe to right field and Porling sacrificed him to second. With one out, Flene whiffed the second member of the norris-topped firm, but Liese, who was next up, drove safe to center field, scoring Gardner. In the seventh, Mc-Auley who had managed to get to first, was advanced to second on Liese's sacrifice, and scored on Warhop's drive to left field. Here, with men on second and third, Flene extended himself a little, and whiffed
Erickson, making three out.

Although full of fast plays, the game was remarkably quiet. There was some scattering applause at the double plays, in two of which Mee flipped, but neither the spectators nor the players appeared rapturous. Outside of the two bad innings, Flene pitched good ball and was ably assisted by Anderson, Tommy Mee, although credited with one error, sustained his reputation as a star youngster. Liese's work practically overshadowed the rest of the Deloit team,
but at that, McAuley and Gardner,
shone a little, and that not on account of the color of their hair.

GAME BY INNINGS.

First.
Janesville: Hall lifted a high one
to left field which stuck in Gardner's mitt. Ward waited patiently and drew a base on balls. Mee lined a hot one through short stop which Pearce booted, allowing the Madison phenomena to perch safe on first. Solbra grounded out. Liese to Hizer.
With men on second and third, Briggs fanned. No runs.

Deloit: Erickson struck out, Smith
drew a base on balls. Gardner hit safe to short left field. Porling hit safe, filling the bases, with one out.
McAuley was next up and connected with one of Flene's slants for a screaming drive over Mee's head.
The little short stop made a beautiful running catch and quick as a flash threw Smith out at third, retiring the side. No runs.

Second.
Janesville: Mee walked. Anderson fanned and his performance was duplicated by Rowland. With Flene up, Smith caught Miller at second in an attempt to steal. No runs.

Deloit: Liese out, Briggs to Sol-
bra. Warhop out, Miller to Solbra.
Pearce out, Flene to Solbra. No runs.

Third.
Janesville: Flene hit safe to right field. Hall bunted and was safe.
Ward hit to McAuley, forcing Hall,
and was thrown out at first. McAuley to Hizer. With Flene on third and two out, Liese fanned Mee, spilling Janesville's second chance to score.
No runs.

Deloit: Hizer pulled an easy grounded to Solbra. Erickson was thrown out, Briggs to Solbra. Smith struck out. No runs.

Fourth.
Janesville: Liese whiffed Solbra and Briggs in quick order. Miller poked an easy roller to Hizer. No runs.

Deloit: Gardner hit safe to right field. Porling sacrificed, putting Garner to second. McAuley fanned.
Liese slammed a hot one to center field, reaching first, and allowing Gardner to score. Warhop went out.
Flene to Hizer. One run.

Fifth.
Janesville: Anderson out, Liese to Hizer. Rowland went out after the same fashion. Flene bunted an easy drive to short which Pearce ju-gled with long enough to allow the lanky pitcher to reach first. Liese threw Hall out at first. No runs.

Deloit: Anderson caught Pearce's
high foul. Hizer hit safe to right field. Erickson hit to Mee who threw up him out at first and Solbra completed a double play by heading Hizer
off in an attempt to preempt third.
No runs.

Sixth.
Janesville: Ward struck out. Mee hit safe to left field and stole second when Liese tried to catch him off first and Hizer, after coughing half a moment, threw him to McAuley. Solbra bunted to Hizer. Pearce made a beautiful one-hand stop of Briggs's liner, throwing the latter out at first and retiring the side. No runs.

Deloit: Briggs threw Smith out at first. Gardner drew a pass. Porling connected for a hard drive down the third base line which Miller garnered and slammed to Briggs, retiring Garner. Briggs relayed the ball to first, completing the double play. No runs.

Seventh.
Janesville: Miller fanned and Anderson pulled an easy grounder to Hizer. Rowland was safe when
"Liese" dropped the third strike and Hizer fanned the ball at first. Rowland reached second on a passed ball
but Flene fanned, making three out.
No runs.

Deloit: McAuley reached first on Mee's error and was advanced to second on Liese's sacrifice. Warhop hit to left field, scoring McAuley. Pearce flew out to Briggs. Hizer hit safe to Miller, advancing Warhop to third and later got to second himself. With men on second and third, and two down, Flene pitched himself out of a bad hole by whiffing Erickson. One run.

Eighth.
Janesville: Hall lifted a high one to McAuley. Ward hit through first and second and was safe. Mee fanned. McAuley threw Solbra out at first. No runs.

Deloit: Mee threw Smith out at first. Gardner nearly snapped his head off trying to reach three of Flene's twisters. Rowland made a

Umpire: James Ward, Rockford.

Notes of the Game.

The weather for football.
There wasn't a kick made on the tamps. Jimmy Ward.
There was little betting on the game. With Liese in the box, the Janesville backers refused to come out of their hole.
In the fourth, some of the fans began to call for Brown. They evidently thought that Ward was holding him in reserve at $125 a game.
For one inning, at least, it might have been possible to dispense with the services of at least five of the Blonds. In the fifth, Liese had all three basists to his credit and only four men faced him.
Mee's circus catch of McAuley's
high drive in the first and the following double play, was all that saved Deloit from scoring in the first. Had he missed the ball, Smith would probably have reached home from second, leaving two men on bases
with only one down.
Although Hizer, the Rockford first baseman, got two hits in three times up, he made rather a mess of it in the field. In the fifth he slid more than three feet on one ear in an attempt to reach third. In the sixth, he held Liese's throw so long that Mee was able to steal second and in the seventh, he dropped Briggs's throw,
allowing Rowland to reach first.
It was a very quiet crowd, possibly on account of the weather. The fans were too busy keeping warm to waste
any energy on the immortals.
There was but two fouls. One when a circuit train passed on the opposite side of the river, and the other when a Janesville supporter left his seat in the grand stand to offer physical satisfaction to an ardent Line City bug who had been arguing with him through the netting.
There was nothing doing however, and the sheriff found everything serene
when he promenade down the front of the stand. Some of the spectators who wanted a little more excitement,
started a crap game, a dollar a throw,
behind the grandstand, and got away
with it.
Tommy Mills, the old Deloit college star, who was to have played center field for Deloit, sprained his ankle playing football Saturday and could not get into the game. Erickson, the Rockford man, who is to play utility against the Cubs, took his place. Mills withdrew the game from the players'
bench.

BRIDGE WORKER WAS KILLED BY FREIGHT

G. Palmer of Belmont Hit by Train
No. 92 West of Burlington
Saturday Afternoon.

G. Palmer of Belmont, a laborer employed by the St. Paul road as a bridge workman, was killed by a freight
No. 92 west of Burlington on the Mineral Point division of the road Saturday afternoon. Palmer and another bridge laborer named Wilcox had started on a speeder hauler, and having ascertained that the freight had not reached Calumet, the first station
west of Burlington, thought they would be able to reach Burlington. The freight train was traveling at pretty good speed when the two men were sighted and backer O. Schieker pulled the whistle cord twice, but the distance was too short to bring the train to a full stop immediately. Wilcox jumped when he heard the whistle
and escaped unhurt, but Palmer stayed on the speeder and was picked up by the freight crew with a broken neck. The train was in charge of Engineer Schieker and Fireman Zinta,
both of this city.

CAREFUL MOTORMAN
-SAVED MAN'S LIFE

Nelson Anderson Undoubtedly Saved
Intoxicated Sleeper from Sudden Death.

Had it not been for Motorman Nelson Anderson's care, Lawrence Cronin might not be enjoying the American citizen's inalienable rights of life,
liberty and the pursuit of happiness
today. When car number 711, due in Janesville at 5:45 last night, was running north from Powers, just this side of Yost's Park in charge of Motorman
Nels Anderson and Conductor Fred Horbert, the man at the controller noticed a dark object lying across the rails some distance ahead of the car.
At first he thought it was a dog, but as it did not move he slowed up and whistled, thinking something was wrong. Just as he was about to bring the car to a dead stop the mysterious object moved and rolled into the ditch on the left side of the track. It was then seen that the supposed dog was a man. The car was stopped immediately and the sleeper, whose name was Lawrence Cronin, dragged aboard and taken to the police station. It appears that Cronin, after becoming intoxicated
at Yost's Park, started to walk the tracks toward town. When the first section of the 5:45 car approached he was still able to get out of the way, but later fell across the rails. In the gathering darkness it would have been very easy for his form to pass unseen and he has Motorman Anderson to thank that he is still living.

WILLIAM W. CARGILL
PASSED AWAY SUNDAY

La Crosse Millionaire, Who Formerly Lived in Janesville, Dies After Brief Illness.

A telegram received in the city yesterday announced the death of W. W.
Cargill, which occurred at his home
in La Crosse at three o'clock Sunday morning, the direct cause being pneumonia, aggravated by pleurisy possibly.

Mr. Cargill was 61 years old. He was born on Long Island and when a boy of 12 the family came west and located in Janesville. Captain Cargill, his father, will be remembered as among the pioneer settlers. His title was earned by many years of soldiering
service, and his rugged character won for him a host of friends.

The family of six children were educated here and in early life the boys developed traits of business which called for a wider field of operation,
so they went over into the new state of Minnesota and soon established a reputation as grain buyers and in a few years the Cargill elevators were known throughout the west.

Later, William engaged in other enterprises, and for many years his interests and land interests in Montana,
California and Mexico made him a considerable figure in the business world,
for success crowned effort, and at the time of his death he was many times
a millionaire.

William Cargill was an honest man and a kindly hearted man for him the love and confidence of all who knew him. His boyhood home was never forgotten and when the new Methodist church was building he contributed a substantial fund in memory of his father, who was one of the early members.

On a recent visit to his sister, Mrs.
George Barker, he suggested some bu-sinevents to the interior finish of the building, and intimated that he would aid in carrying them out. Mr. Cargill is survived by his wife and four children—two sons, Will and Austin,
both at home, and two daughters,
Edna, now Mrs. McMillan of Minneapolis, and Emma, now Mrs. Fred Hatch, now abroad with her husband. Two brothers also survive—
Sylvester and James, both of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barker leave today for La Crosse to attend the funeral, which will probably be held on Wednesday.

At the Myers theatre on Saturday
the Blenden Stock Co. closed a three-day engagement with an excellent matinee performance of "Moths" and an evening presentation of the com-edie drama "Kilbarney." The players made a very good impression here and their efforts deserved much better patronage than they received.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willamette, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do,
and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. Lora Donovan; Box

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, indur-ation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, painful periods, backache,
bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves
to at least give this medicine a trial.
Proof is abundant that it has cured
thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

Pittsburg Base Ball Team, Champions of the World

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, October 18, 1869.—Dwelling House Burned.—A two-story dwelling house owned and occupied by Mr. Wm. Bemis, located about one and a half miles from the city on the Galea road, was burned yesterday forenoon while the family were absent from home. The fire was supposed to result from a defective chimney. On the house was an insurance of $1,000; on the furniture $500, and on wearing apparel, $500. Scarcely anything was saved. The loss on the building over and above the insurance is estimated at $500.

Huge Vegetables.—The town of Rock, through Mr. Peter Carhartt, has contributed something to the stock of huge vegetables which have been brought to our office as curiosities. It left a couple of Swedish turnips, the largest of which weighed 2 1/2 pounds, and six onions which weighed 1 1/2 pounds and two ounces. The meeting is open for remark.

A wealthy Janesville man recently lost ninety-five dollars and when it was found and returned to him by an honest young lad he rewarded him with 25 cents. That man will never die of enlargement of the heart.

Before mill dams and bridges obstructed the river, steamboats were not an uncommon sight on Rock River. The record shows that in 1844 a steamboat 130 feet in length came up from the Mississippi as far as Jefferson, returning from that point.

The first permanent settlement at this place occurred thirty-four years ago this present month, by four pioneers, who erected a log cabin on the south bank of the river, opposite the "Big Rock."

The first mail received at Janesville contained but one letter, and that for the postmaster, Henry B. Jones. Lacy Elbe fell into the river yesterday in the town of Rock, but he succeeded in getting out alone.

Notable events for this city will be the organ concert of the Congregational church, which takes place on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. American grey eagles are getting quite common in the country. With the scarcity of partridges and other game to prey upon farmers should look well to their sheep.

WILLIE BOY KILLS SELF WITH HIS LAST SHOT

Pluto Desperado, Chased for Days by Posse, is Found Dead on Mountain Top.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—On the summit of Bullion mountain was found the inanimate body of "Willie Boy," the desperado Pluto Indian, for whom three armed posses having been searching the San Bernardino desert for weeks.

He had killed himself with the last shot in his rifle and had been dead several days.

"Willie Boy" made his stand on the mountain against the pursuing posse of Sheriff Hatcher on the afternoon of October 7, after being relentlessly pursued for ten days across the most barren section of the western desert.

Among the Pluto Indians "Willie Boy" was regarded as a Luthario. On September 20 he murdered Mike Bonifacio, an aged Indian, and fled with the latter's 16-year-old daughter. Four days later the pursuing posse found the girl's dead body. She had been beaten and finally murdered when she became too exhausted to keep up with her fleeing lover.

During the battle on Bullion mountain "Willie Boy" wounded three members of the posse, killed three of their horses and finally forced them to abandon the attack until reinforcements were secured.

5 KILLED; 21 HURT BY BOMBS.

Situation at Barcelona Becoming Most Serious—Many Bombs Thrown.

Lisbon, Oct. 18.—Cable dispatches from Barcelona state that the situation there is increasingly disquieting. Twenty-seven bombs have been thrown in the last four days, five persons being killed and 21 wounded.

On Saturday an attempt was made to rush the fortress of Montjuich to release the prisoners. A bomb was thrown against the door but it failed to explode, and the attacking party fled on the approach of the guards.

New York, Oct. 18.—Aroused by the fiery speech of Emma Goldman, whose anarchistic tendencies have earned her the title "Queen of the Reds," 1,000 men and women, socialists, anarchists and other radicals, packed on East side hall and, unmolested by the police, adopted resolutions denouncing the execution of Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish revolutionist.

"Alfonso, the assassin," was muttered in three languages, English, Spanish and French, as the succeeding speakers attacked the Spanish monarch and hinted that revenge was yet to come.

Emma Goldman, who was the chief speaker, sought to draw a parallel between the case of Ferrer and those of Mayer, Haywood and Pettibone of the Western Federation of Miners. At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that a more comprehensive gathering will be held at Carnegie hall on Tuesday night.

London, Oct. 18.—The red flag was raised in London and a large mob moved upon the Spanish embassy to make a demonstration of its disapproval of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer. Several bodies of police were stationed at the approaches to the embassy and they drove off the crowds in their usual bloodless, official way. But considerable excitement and uneasiness pervaded the neighborhood. The grunts and hootings were plainly heard in the embassy and at Buckingham palace, nearby.

No one was injured seriously, although the mounted police rode against the crowds and scattered them several times.

REVOLUTION SPREADS RAPIDLY.

Thousands Are Flocking to Standard Nicaraguan Rebel Leader.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—A special from Bluefields, Nicaragua, says: "The revolutionary movement is spreading rapidly in Nicaragua and the wildest confusion prevails throughout the country. Thousands of people are flocking to the standard of Gen. Estrada and the revolutionary leaders now have a formidable army. The revolutionary government today received advice that the revolt had extended to the western coast of Nicaragua.

Hundreds of exiled Nicaraguans in Honduras, Salvador and Costa Rica are on their way to Bluefields and Greytown to join the insurgents. The adherents of Gen. Estrada stated that they expected the revolt to extend to the city of Managua, the capital of the republic, within 48 hours. It is claimed by the Nicaraguan revolutionists that Guatemala and Salvador are in sympathy with them and are secretly furnishing aid. The revolt has completely paralyzed business.

The town of Chile, an important point 20 miles above Nana, is in the hands of the insurgents. There was a sharp firing long before the place was taken. The leader of the Zelaya forces and Estrada forces were both killed.

It is reported that San Carlos, a strategic point on Lake Nicaragua, has been captured by insurgents.

Find Does Not Pay to Work.

In British Columbia platinum is found in many of the alluvial gold workings, where it can be saved as a by-product. The saving of it in a small way is, however, attended with so much trouble that it has been practically neglected and no appreciable production made recently.

He Has a Private Railroad.

On the 55,000 acres (three whole townships) that William Rockefeller owns in the Adirondacks he has a private railroad station. Waiting there all the time is a special train ready to make a quick getaway. Forest fires are numerous in that region, and the natives thereabouts do not love their Rockefeller.

Era of High Prices.

The announcement that France is going to spend three milliards of francs for new ships of war—that is to say, for peace—reminds us how prices have gone up since 1871.

In that year France bought peace of Bismarck for one milliard. And a milliard, furthermore, was deemed, in that day, a fairly stiff figure—the charity French more than hinted that Bismarck had driven a sharp bargain; whereas, on the occasion of the present purchase, the nation is reported quite in a glow of delight.—Puck.

Made Snowshoes That Trod the Pole.

Melville Dunham, maker of the famous Dunham snowshoes, is about as proud and happy to-day as if he had discovered the north pole, for he made all the shoes used by Peary and his men. Mr. Dunham is a great admirer of the explorer and he has never doubted but what success would be his reward. Just before Mr. Peary's last sailing Dunham visited him on board the Roosevelt. It is certainly of interest to the Maine born and especially the "Oxford Bears" that a product of the home forest—white ash—utilized by a native citizen, has aided Peary in the northward journey.
